Governor Davis has appointed Hon. Berkeley D. Atkinson to the vacancy on the Corporation Commission. Mr. Adams is the Democratic nominee, and a Democratic Governor doubtless carried out the wishes of Virginia in appointing Mr.
Adams. The place has been accepted by Mr. Adams, and Charlotte county loses to Richmond one of her best farmers.

There seems to be little or no interest manifested in politics this year and but for the Democratic Steering Committee and party whiff, many of the county and district offices would go over to general November elections without party nominees.
In this county the Executive Committee has declared nominees for every office with the single exception of Supervisor for Stonewall district, where Judge D. A. Christian and Mr.
S. E. Anderson are contesting for the Democratic nomination.

Democratic Committee Declares Nominees

The following candidates for the offices not opposite their names are the only Democratic candidates who have filed their names, according to law, and in compliance with the rules of the Democratic Executive Committee of May 10th, and were declared the nominees of the Democratic Committee, on June 6th, 1919.

For Commonwealth Attorney—
John W. Flood.

For County Treasurer—R. F.
Burke.

For County Clerk—C. W. Smith.

For Sheriff—H. W. McKinney.

For Commissioner of the Revenue—E. R. Abbott.

For Member of the House of Delegates—J. R. Horsley.

CLOVER HILL DISTRICT

For Supervisor—W. H. Ligon.

For Road Commissioner—S. A. Ferguson.

For Justice of the Peace—
L. M. Southall, F. A. O'Brien, P.
H. Gilliam.

SOUTHWALL DISTRICT

For Supervisor—L. E. Smith.

For Road Commissioner—W.
B. Harvey.

For Justice of the Peace—

nation will be in Stonewall District for the nomination to the office of Supervisor; Judge D.
A. Christian and Mr. S. E. Anderson, having filed their names of candidacy for this position.

Mr. J. R. Horsley, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee offered his resignation as such Chairman, on account of his being a candidate, he deeming it improper for him to serve, and Mr. L. F.

Ferguson was elected Chairman in his stead, to take effect as soon as the candidate for the Senate for this District, who has no opposition, is declared the nominee of the party; and the following resolutions were adopted in respect of Mr.
Horsley's service as Chairman of the party.

Whereas, the Hon. J. R. Horsley, who has been Chairman of the Democratic Committee of Appomattox County for many years has this the 6th day of June, 1919, tendered his resignation as such Chairman on account of his candidacy for the House of Delegates in the present campaign to take effect as soon as the candidate for the Senate of the 18th Senatorial District, who has no opposition, is declared the nominee of the party, and

Resolved, during the term of the Chairmanship of Mr. Horsley, he has shown himself to be a wise counselor and good leader in party affairs.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved, by the Democratic Executive Committee now in session that it deeply regrets that conditions make it inadvisable for him to resign as Chairman, and that we extend to him on behalf of the Democratic Appomattox county our thanks and appreciation for the wise counsel he has given and the safe leadership he has furnished.
